COMPUTATION+ JOURNALISM SYMPOSIIM

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 26

EVENT SCHEDULE

8:30 AM

9:15 AM

BREAKFAST

Join us for coffee and a bite to eat as we prepare for a day of events

9:15 AM

-

10:00 AM

KEYNOTE: JULIA ANGWIN

Julia Angwin is an American investigative journalist, author, and entrepreneur

10:15 AM

-

11:15 AM

PANELS

Choose from three panels: LLMs, Search, and Bias; Audience and Representation; and Al in Newsrooms

11:30 AM

-

12:30 PM

PANELS

Choose from three panels: Language Analysis and Bias; Newsroom Practice; and Content and Ethics

12:30 PM

1:30 PM

LUNCH AND NETWORKING

Sit down with friends and colleagues for a delicious

lunch

1:30 PM

-

2:15 PM

KEYNOTE: AARON SANKIN

Aaron Sankin is a reporter covering online extremism, election administration and technology policy

2:15 PM

2:45 PM

COFFEE BREAK

Refresh with coffee or tea in the atrium

2:45 PM

4:15 PM

WORKSHOPS

Choose from four in-depth workshops hosted by skilled academics

4:30 PM

5:30 PM

PANELS

Choose from two panels: Local News, or

Investigative Techniques

COMPUTATION+ JOURNALISM

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 26

10:15 AM - 11:15 AM PANELS

ROOM 136 | LLMs, Search, and Bias

SYMPOSIUM

Nick Beauchamp Measuring Media Bias in the Selective Reporting of Events: The Promises and Challenges of Large Language Models

Zhen Guo Google Searches Regarding Politicians are Dominated by a Few Nonpartisan News Sources

Charlotte Li and Nicholas Diakopoulos Probing GPT-4 for Knowledge of Journalistic Tasks

Harry Yaojun Yan, Garrett Morrow, Kai-Cheng Yang and John Wihbey Public Concerns Over Al-Supercharging Misinformation in the 2024 US Presidential Election

ROOM 138 | Audience and Representation

Alyssa Smith An Annotated Dataset of U.S. Transgender News For Determining Agenda-Setting & Information Flows Eliza Mitova A Complex Interplay: Exploring the (Mis)Match Between Audiences' and News Organizations' Assessments of News Personalization

Kristi Tanner, Anjanette Delgado Missing in Detroit: Creating a Framework for Equitable Reporting and Minimizing Harm

Mohamed Salama Bias or Not? Exploring US Press Representations of Law Enforcement in Lynching Coverage 1789–1963

ROOM 140 | Al in Newsrooms

Bahareh Heravi Applying Al in

Newsrooms: Lessons from the Applied Al in Journalism Challenge

Titus Plattner Scaling GenAl

Experimentation and Implementation in the Newsroom

Dhrumil Mehta Pollfinder.ai | Using Large Language Models to Help Newsrooms Aggregate Polls For the 2024 Election

11:30 AM - 12:30 PM PANELS

ROOM 136 | Language Analysis and

Jiaxin Pei Modeling Information Change in Science Communication with Natural Language Processing Sachita Nishal De-jargonizing Science for Journalist

Rahul Bhargava A Case Study in an A.I.-Assisted Content Audit

with GPT-4: A Pilot Study

William Brannon The Speed and Sentiment of News in Twitter (X) vs. Radio

ROOM 138 | Newsroom Practice

Hope Schroeder Al-Mediated Analysis: Just put a Human in the Loop?

Catherine Sotirakou, Katerina Mandenaki, Anastasia Karampela and Costas Mourlas Strategies for Success: Dos and Don'ts in the Digital Transformation of Media Companies

Md Main Uddin Rony Perceptions and Corrections of Misleading News Headlines: Insights from Journalists and News Consumers

Jessica Zier and Nicholas Diakopoulos Labeling Al-Generated News Content: Matching Journalist Intentions with Audience Expectations

ROOM 140 | Content and Ethics

Leah Teichholtz A Large-Language-Model-Backed Editing Interface for Supporting Ethical Journalism Practices

Cole Biehle, Ritvik Irigireddy Participatory Journalism: Stakeholder Perspectives on Enhancing Online Discussion through Data Talk
Stephen Jefferson Geographic Consistency: A
New Framework for Measuring Fluctuations and Representation in Local Journalism

2:45 PM - 4:15 PM WORKSHOPS

ROOM 136 | Evaluating GenAl Tools in Your Newsroom

Charlotte Li, Sachita Nishal and Nicholas Diakopoulos

ROOM 140 | Using LLMs To Help You Build Data Visualizations In D3

Dhrumil Mehta and Aarushi Sahejpal

ROOM 138 | Social Network Analysis for Sports and Investigative Journalism

Hong Qu and Julian Benbow

ROOM 142 | Physical Data Visualization

Andres Snitcofsky and Rahul Bhargava

4:30 PM - 5:30 PM PANELS

ROOM 136 | Local News

Doug Beeferman and Nabeel Gillani Search and Discovery of Local Government Meetings for Journalists

Kai-Cheng Yang Revealing the Localness of News Domains through Consumption Patterns on Social Media

Marianne Aubin Le Quéré Towards Identifying Local Content Deserts with Open-Source Large Language Models

Arijit Paladhi Predicting News Deserts Using Supervised Machine Learning

ROOM 138 | Investigative Techniques

Alexander Spangher Surfacing

Newsworthy Public Documents As Leads

Joris Veerbeek and Nicholas

Diakopoulos

Using Generative Agents to Create Tip

Sheets for Investigative Data Reporting

COMPUTATION+ JOURNALISM SYMPOSIUM

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 27

10:15 AM - 11:45 AM WORKSHOPS

ROOM 136 | Al Innovation in the

Newsroom

Maximilian Eder

ROOM 138 | Overcoming Challenges in Implementing AI in the

Newsroom

Titus Plattner

ROOM 140 | Preparing for the Day After: Covering Elections through the Inauguration

Jason Radford

ROOM 142 | Finding and Using Undocumented APIs

Piotr Sapiezynski

EVENT SCHEDULE

8:30 AM

9:15 AM

BREAKFAST

Join us for coffee and a bite to eat as we prepare for a day of events

9:15 AM

-10:00 AM KEYNOTE: ALAN MISLOVE

Alan Mislove recently served as Deputy U.S. Chief Technology Officer for Privacy at the White House

10:15 AM

-11:45 AM WORKSHOPS

Choose from four in-depth workshops hosted by skilled academics

11:45 AM

-12:00 PM SNACK BREAK

Enjoy an assortment of snacks and beverages in the atrium

12:00 PM

-1:00 PM PANELS

Choose from two panels: Partnering and Community, or Data Journalism

CLOSING

CLOSING

Thank you for attending C+J 2024. Safe travels home!

12:00 PM - 1:00 PM PANELS

ROOM 136 | Partnering and Community

Jeffrey Gleason Introduction to National Internet Observatory

Brooke Williams What We've Learned: Teaming Up Journalism and Computer Science Students to Produce Data-Driven Investigations for News Outlets

Dhrumil Mehta Data Journalism Teachers' Club: A New Community For Data Journalism Educators

ROOM 138 | Data Journalism

Louri Glen Kae Compain CuratedDDS: A Taxonomy and a Dataset of Data-Driven Stories to Support Journalists' Inspiration Divyanshi Wadhwa What Does it Take to Create an Award-winning Data Public Good? Behind the Scenes of Producing the Atlas of Sustainable Development Goals 2023

Lily Houtman The Challenges and Opportunities of Designing News Maps for Mobile Devices